The Teacher Education Program at Southeastern Oklahoma State University is based on the shared vision that Candidates should be trained as a manager of learning. A manager of learning is able to effectively plan and deliver instruction while motivating and assessing students. This theme statement “Teacher: Manager of Learning” describes the role of the candidate as a manager of learning in partnership with professionals, parents, and the community to facilitate the education of all students.